I made some minor changes the reason I need the proceeds to be deposited in my trust account is the same as the ADD policy that I don't think the court will approve the minor settlement under our rules without that condition and it has to have jurisdiction over them. I won't stiff you and run off to Rio!

The other is your letter appears to provide that Barcott has to Accept Barcott has to pay within 10 days. They won't do that if we haven't gotten minor approval.

Lawler's first name is spelled "Jon" for page 2 of the letter. Otherwise good.

As noted during our conference call, we agreed to "nothing" in terms of division of policy limits if Barcott agrees to pay it. I have attached the latest draft of the policy limits demand. Please review and let me know if you have any comments or if we have authority to send out - kc
